The 1942 Ole Miss

will have fulfilled its purpose if it enables you to look back on this year when, though

America and the world were engaged in war,

the University afforded you opportunities for

ALMA MATER

'Way down south in Mississippi, there's a spot that ever calls,
Where among the hills enfolded stand old Alma Mater's halls.
Where the trees lift high their branches
to the whispering Southern breeze.
There Ole Miss is calling, calling to our hearts' fond memories.

GOVERNOR OF THE STATE

E X E C U T I V E

Our Governor, Hon. Paul Burney Johnson, has repeatedly demonstrated his competence in the key position of Ex-officio President of the Board of Trustees of the Institutions of Higher Learning. He recognizes not only the need for a well-rounded development of the State, but also he advocates an assurance of secure educational policies for all Mississippi schools. We pay tribute to his Excellency in appreciation for his continuous efforts in behalf of the University of Mississippi.

CHANCELLOR OF THE UNIVERSITY

OF THE UNIVERSITY

Regardless of the multitudinous details of the tasks required by his administration as Chancellor of the University, Dr. Alfred Benjamin Butts has kept before him the development of Ole Miss in all of its phases to meet the needs and interests of the students. His impartiality in handling University affairs has won him the respect of all who have dealt with him. For these attributes, his loyalty and sincerity, Chancellor Butts will always hold the genuine esteem of every Ole Miss man.

The Administra

UNDER the present administration, Ole Miss has expanded to proportions unrecognizable and incomprehensible to the students of earlier days. Dr. Butts, a widely known scholar and administrator, heading the administration for the sixth consecutive year, has gained the admiration of the student body by fair and forthright action and high integrity.

Dr. Alfred Hume, as Chancellor Emeritus, still faithfully serves Ole Miss as he did for many years as its Chancellor. A thorough gentleman, and an outstanding scholar in mathematics, Dr. Hume is one of Ole Miss' most respected men.

Working in collaboration with these men are: 39 Ph.D.'s, 24 M.A.'s, 5 M.S.'s, 10 LL.B.'s, 9 B.S.'s, 1 B.E., 1 LL.D., 20 M.D.'s, 1 M.E., 2 M.M.'s, 8 B.A.'s, 1 B.M.E., 3 M.B.A.'s, 1 S.J.D., 2 LL.M.'s, 1 C.P.A., 3 Sc.D.'s, 1 Oph.D., 3 B.S.S.'s, 1 Ph.B., 3 misanthropes, 1 dogmatic muliebrity, 4 1-4 idealists, 48 lost umbrellas, and tons of erudition.

book exchange, and, during the second semester, bettered relations with high schools throughout the State by sending them copies of The Mississippian and by other methods.

The Governing Unit of the Associated Student Body

Women students at the University of Mississippi are theoretically governed by the Women's Student Government Association under the direct supervision of Miss Estella G. Hefley, Dean of Women. The faculty has granted to the women of the student government the power to help control some of the matters concerning the conduct of women students in their college life, not directly under the control of the University authorities and the Dormitory management.

The W. S. G. A. is a member of the National Intercollegiate Association of Women Students, and of the Mississippi Intercollegiate Women's Student Government Association.

The executive council is elected by student vote, with possible changes being sometimes made by student petition.

Each woman at Ole Miss is a member of the association and is required to be familiar with all of the many rules and regulations which it sets forth. A student government handbook which governs the conduct of the women students, is issued regularly. Freshman and transfer girls are given an examination based on the contents of this book.

The legislative Council is composed of: Martha Vardaman, Aline Taylor, Ruth Guyton, Melva Cartwright, Daisy Belle Sessions, Bette Congdon, Ophelia Price, Doris Baldwin, Wilma Shaw, Ruth Ray, Phyllis Hoffman, Mary Agnes Fant, Mary Louise Smith, and Orpal Trammell.

From rushing confusion, 18th century model, to a rushing system, 20th century style, is the record of the present Interfraternity Council. The members of the present council reorganized the efforts of their predecessors in such a direction, formulated new plans and ideas, and carried this year's rush week to a highly successful culmination. The marked success of the transition that they effected reflects credit not only on the organization and its officers but on each member as such.

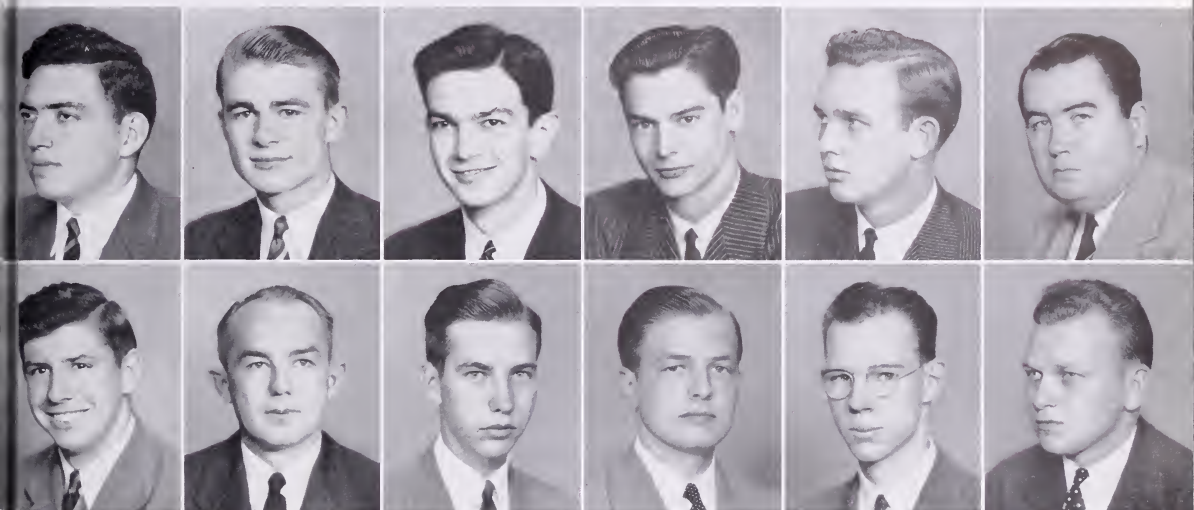

The Interfraternity Council is composed of one man from each of the fifteen fraternities on the campus, and its primary purpose is to make rules and regulations which will govern the fraternities in their relations with one another. The Council operates under its own constitution and by-laws, independent of any faculty influence, its actions being only subject to the sanctions of the Faculty Committee on Fraternities.

In addition to supervising rush week, the Interfraternity Council has a Dance Committee which functions at all sorority and fraternity dances and renders its own punishment for violation of its regulations.

The Interfraternity Council, moreover, encourages scholastic competition and each year presents the fraternity with the highest academic average, a trophy. In cooperation with the Intramural Council, it helps encourage intramural sports and is responsible for the presentation of the trophies to the winners in the various athletic contests.

COUNCIL . . .

The Pan-Hellenic Council, composed of the seven sorority presidents and two representatives from each sorority, meets regularly each month for the purpose of promoting harmony among the different sororities. In order to accomplish this, the organization establishes rushing rules, and limits the quota of pledges permissible to each group.

Each year Pan-Hellenic sponsors Homecoming Decorations consisting of floats, and sorority-house displays. For the best decorations the organization backs up its challenge with a trophy. An annual affair is the scholarship banquet where the sororities are seated according to their scholastic rating.

New students are added each fall by Pan-Hellenic members assisting in registration. These new students, and all the women students are invited to the annual Pan-Hellenic Tea.

THE 1942

The Cardinal Club, sophomore service organization at Ole Miss, was organized on the campus in 1927, and had as its primary purpose the entertainment of visiting athletic teams. The Club, famous as the Freshman disciplinary committee, supervises the building of the annual Homecoming bonfire, acts as guide to numerous student and faculty conventions held on the campus, sponsors the annual Outstanding Freshman Award, and helps to instill within freshmen students enthusiastic Ole Miss spirit and a love of Ole Miss tradition.

Evidences of the genuine service rendered by the Cardinal Club, both past and present, are the many worth while gifts and enduring monuments on the University of Mississippi campus. The giving of such a gift to the University is an annual practice of the Club. Funds for their useful donation are acquired from the popular Cardinal Club dances following important campus football games.

The membership of the Cardinal Club consists of outstanding sophomore men; one from each of the sixteen social fraternities and two from the student body at large. The president is selected from the preceding year's Cardinal Club and is a member of the Junior Class.

Each year the members of the Cardinal Club select for their sponsor an attractive and popular sophomore coed; this year honoring Miss Jean Evans.

Beta Zeta, an honorary fraternal organization for band members, has done much to promote a greater Ole Miss band—greater in interest, spirit, and ability. To qualify for membership in Beta Zeta a candidate must have been a member of the band for at least two years and candidates are selected on the basis of leadership, interest, and ability.

Since the reorganization of Beta Zeta in 1937, the band has continued to make gigantic strides, contributing heavily toward making the Ole Miss band the foremost musical organization of the South.

Officers of Beta Zeta are Huey Howerton, president; Doug Jennings, vice-president; Pete Perkins, secretary. Members are Dotsy Cohen, Rob Dow, Milton S. Perry, R. J. Pettey, and Ed Rappaport.

If you've never seen the Ole Miss band in action then you've missed a spectacle well worth seeing. Recognized as one of the most outstanding musical organizations of the South, the Rebel band has enthralled spectators both here and elsewhere with its brilliant performances. Maintaining a delightful versatility, the band presents a new and different novelty at each football game, the farcical skit satirizing Hitler and Mussolini, being one of the cleverest and most entertaining of this year's football season. The presentation of the State of Mississippi and her resources and industries to 45,000 people at the Ole Miss-Tulane game in New Orleans won the unrestrained plaudits of the spectators. No one organization could do more to keep alive, within the students and within the football team, such a great degree of Rebel spirit.

Not content with laurels earned during football season, our flashy band continues to delight students and visitors alike with varied and colorful concerts throughout the year.

Under the directorship of Mr. Scott Calloway, the band bids fair to continue its progressive spirit. This year the band members purchased new blue and white corduroy jackets, thus distinguishing this organization from any other on the campus.

Doing their part to make the band always appear at its best are those two troupers, Violet and Muriel Mulvenna, whose twirling prowess each year gains new admirers. Head drum major for this year is William Stinson, Jr., strutting drum major, replacing Brownie Burton, is Rose Ann Moore, and twirling drum major is Walter Mac Smith.

Officers of the band are: Rob Dow, president; Milton Perry, vice-president; Pete Perkins, business manager; Huey Howerton, executive council representative.

Totaling seventy-seven members, the Rebel Band has continued to maintain its reputation as one of the best musical units in the South. Flashy drum majors and a fast cadence combine to make the band's show the climax of half-time entertainment at football games, and the musicians demonstrate their versatility by presenting symphonic performances during the rest of the year.

INTRAMURAL COUNCIL

Organized as the governing body of the Ole Miss intramural program, the Intramural Council purports to create an interest in athletics throughout the general student body and among the various campus organizations, and to encourage participation in all phases of sports activity by Ole Miss students. With the aid and supervision of the Athletic Department, this organization, composed of a representative from each fraternity, from the faculty, and from the student body, has done commendable work in accomplishing its objectives.

*M*ILITARY instruction at the University of Mississippi is under the direction of Colonel Harry B. Crea, who came to Ole Miss from Fort Knox. Colonel Crea, ably assisted in his work here at our school by Major H. L. Quarles, Lieutenant John R. Ellis, and Sergeants W. W. Elliott and Oscar R. Feagin, is a veteran military man and has given over a quarter of a century's service to his country since his graduation from the United States Military Academy. The ability of these men is evidenced by the fact that the Ole Miss unit has attained the highest possible honor rating each of the six years that the unit has been organized.

Each year, through the untiring efforts of the instructors and the unselfish interest of the entire corps of cadets, the R. O. T. C. unit at Ole Miss has attained the record of honor rating, as it signified by the blue star worn on the right sleeve of each cadet's uniform. This year, because of the seriousness of international affairs, our R. O. T. C. unit has made phenomenal strides in development and expansion, and has caused each member of the corps to take his work with even a greater feeling of responsibility than ever before.

THE MILITARY BALL

One of the outstanding social functions of the year is the annual military ball. Scene of the affair is the University gymnasium, which is decorated along novel and interesting military lines. It is on this occasion that the sponsors of the military department are presented to the University and the special guests.

Climax of the presentation is a grand march in which the sponsors and escorts pass through the saber arch. Guests of honor for the ball include the Governor of Mississippi, the Governor's Staff, Officials of the Fourth Corps Area, and a limited number of students.

Mr. Walter Bullock
Editor, Ole Miss
University, Mississippi

Dear Mr. Bullock:

Since Nature broke the tape ahead of us and generously wreathed all of your candidates 'round with a fine pictorial charm, I feel that an attempt to single out one of them is a little like trying to do a pirouette and entreshats six when one is capable only of toddling.

Nevertheless, after considerable vaccination I have settled on Rosamond Myers as one man's choice. I do so only with a longing backward glance at Ruthe Minor, Phyllis Hoffman, Helen Pigford and Beverly Sherard, examples of why Southern women have a world wide reputation for an uncommon kind of beauty.

Cordially yours,

A. Varga

*M*EMBERSHIP in the Hall of Fame is based on character, scholarship, constructive leadership, and contribution to the betterment of Ole Miss. The highest honor that can be awarded a University student, the Hall of Fame, is sponsored by The Mississippian on a basis entirely free from campus politics.

A primary committee of twelve students and faculty members chose by secret ballot a nominating committee of twenty-five students, who in turn made their selections by secret ballot; names of this nominating committee remain unidentified.

Members of the 1942 Hall of Fame are Gus Gerard, Ned Gotthelf, Junie Hovious, Edward Lockard, Norma Shuford, and Lois Silver.

TRI DELTA TRUE

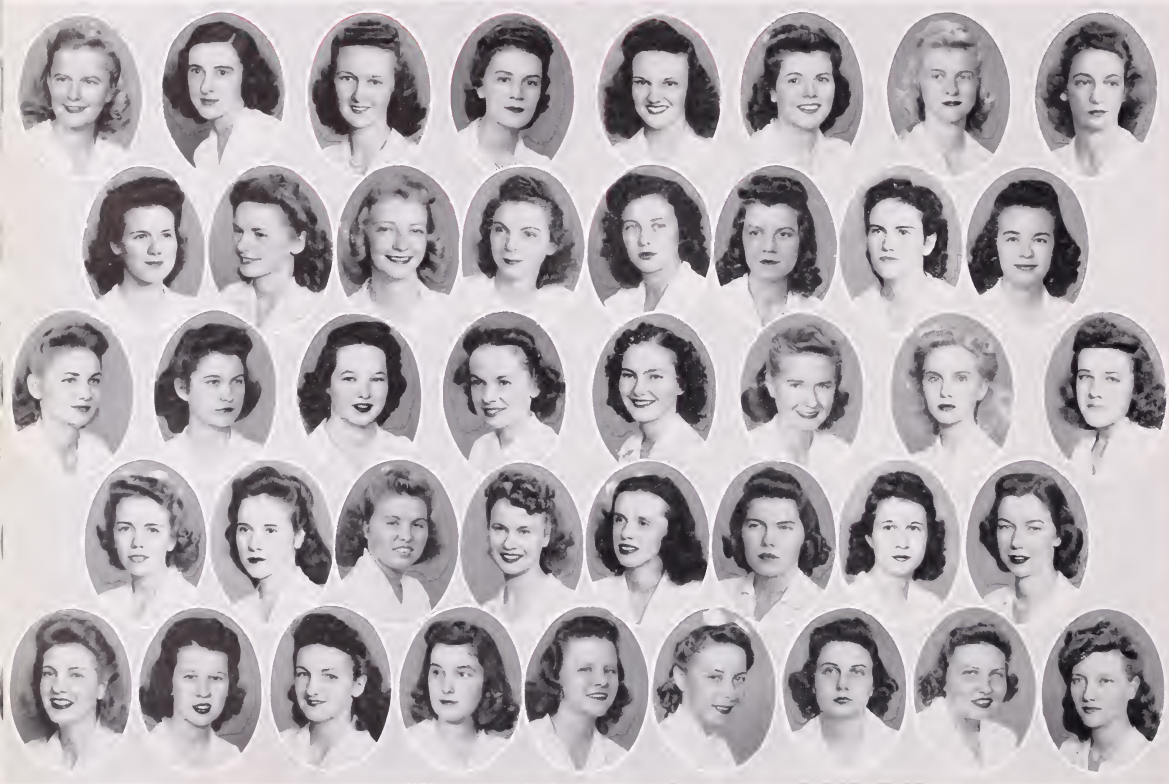

Tri Delta true—
We'll dream of you and love
you—
When college days are o'er,
Those vows I took—
May I remember always,
Through college years and more.
Oh Delta, Delta, Delta,
My loved fraternity—
Those three bright stars,
Within a golden crescent
Claim loyalty until death.

Girls to be doubted are those
Tri Deltas;
They look at you and you literally
melt.
They'll complain about lipstick on your tie,
Then spread theirs all over some other guy.

PHI MU

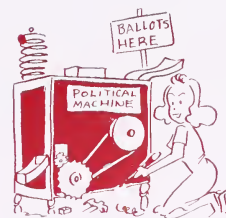

Somewhere in the world she is waiting,

Someday you will find her there,
She is the girl you will love forever

There's none other quite so fair,
Her eyes are like the stars above
Her hair like the moonlit night
She wears ever loyal the heart and hand,

And her colors the rose and white,
Her loveliness is beyond compare,
Her heart she has kept for you,
The girl of your dreams is simply divine

For you are loving a real Phi Mu.

Campus leaders we try to be;
Mighty gals of destiny;
When student elections are the fuss,
You can bet you'll hear from us.

KD GIRL

There is no girl like a KD girl
With a smile like the dawn of the day
There is no vow like a KD vow
It's as true as three stars, they say
Of the sweetheart you love
Wears a KD pin
Then her love is as deep as the sea
And she'll always be yours
If she swears she will
By the honor of our own KD.

There's no girl like a KD girl;
They're young but they learn quick.
They get their man
The best they can,
if hearts are trumps they take the trick.

I HAVE FOUND MY DREAM GIRL

I have found my dream girl,
She's as sweet as sha can be,
I have found the one I love,
She's all the world to me.
She wears the golden anchor
The bronze, and pink, and blue,
Delta G, I love you
And to you I will be true.

Winding stairway—a gorgeous house—

Congenial girls, quiet as a mouse,
We'll never marry a millionaire
Unless we cut our bushy hair.

The heart of the Delta Zeta Rose,
Filled with love untold—
May faith, hope, and Charity strengthen you,
As your petals of love unfold—
May the world find your heart

So merrily sing we all to D. K. E.
The mother of jollity
Whose children are gay and free.

Hideous sight to see;
Uncut hair, gangling stance—
I'm a DKE.

OLD PAL OF MINE

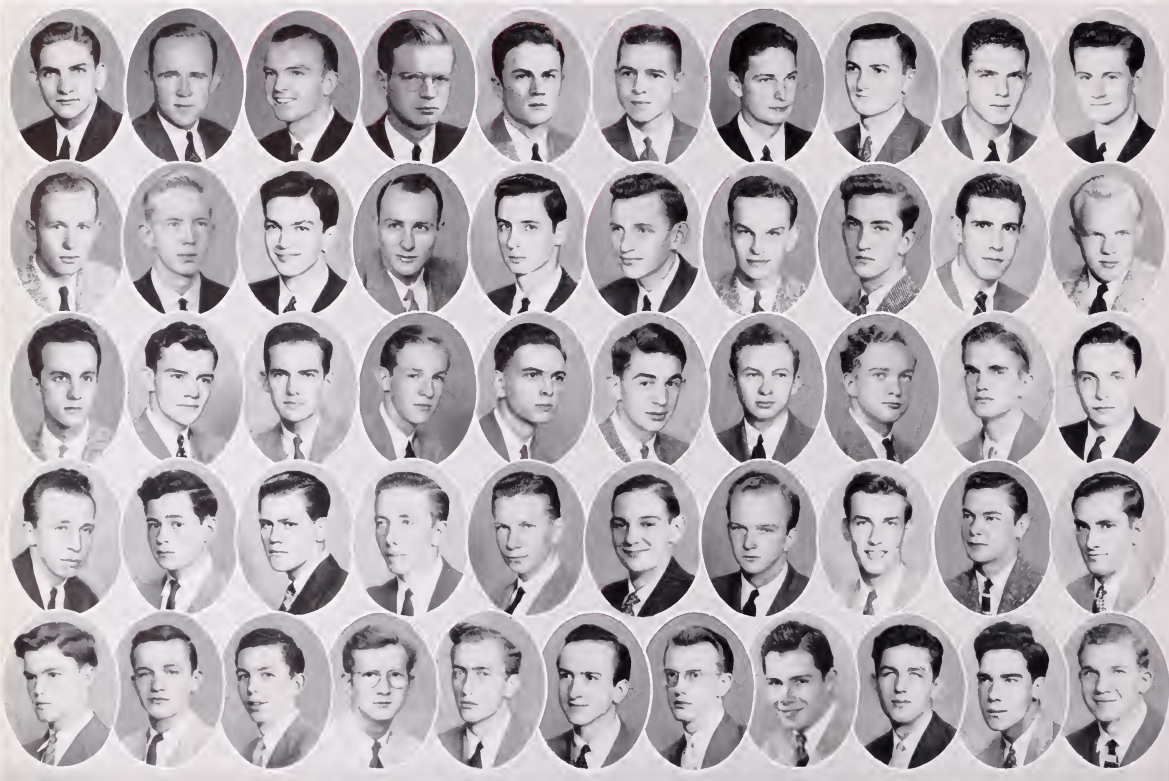

Oh tell me now old pal of mine
Before we have to part
That you will ne'er forget the bonds
That bind us heart to heart,
Fond mem'ries of dear old Phi Psi
In old age linger still,
Sweethearts and friends may fail
you
But a Phi Psi never will.

We have to wake at break of
day—
In the early morning's chill—
For the campus is so far away
From the last house on the hill.

SWEETHEART OF SIGMA CHI

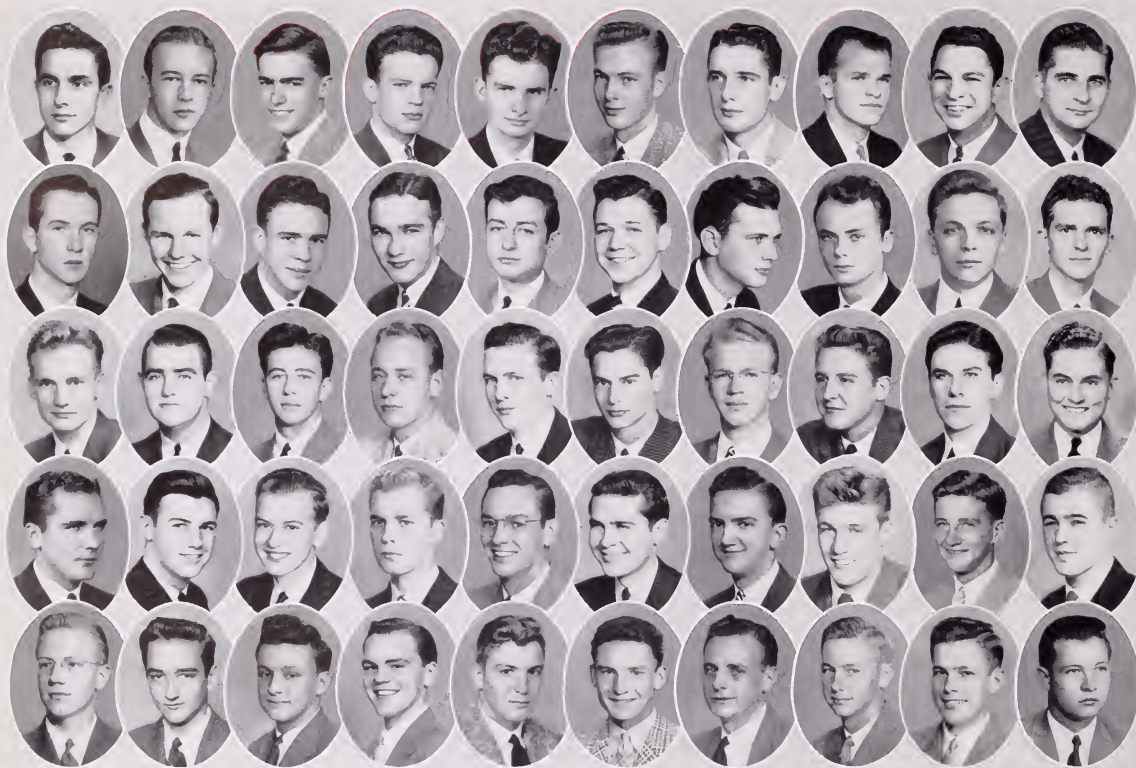

The girl of my dreams is the sweetest girl
Of all the girls I know.
Each sweet coed like a rainbow trail
Fades in the afterglow.
The blue of her eyes and the gold of her hair
Are a blend of the western sky;
And the moonlight beams on the girl of my dreams,
She's the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi.

The blue of her eyes and the gold of her hair
Are a blend of the western sky;
Bue we only have dreams of this sweetheart, it seems,
'Cause we can't find her anywhere nigh.

PHI DELTA THETA FOR AYE

In 18 hundred and 48

Phi Delta Theta for aye

The year we Phi's commemorate

Phi Delta Theta for aye.

Chorus: Phi Delta Theta

Phi Delta Theta, Phi Delta Theta.

Phi Delta Theta for aye.

But six of first we soon became,

Phi Delta Theta for aye

A Grecian clan for wondrous fame

Phi Delta Theta for aye.

"I'm mightier than thou;

To me you must bow—"

So say the snooty Phi's.

They thought they were strong.

But something went wrong

When "smoke got in their eyes."

MY BETA GIRL

Sweetheart of mine . . . My Beta Girl
 Fairest of all . . . My Beta Girl
 Eyes blue as skies of Beta blue
 Cheeks like the rose of Beta hue;
 Tender and true, a pal to all;
 Worthy of Beta's name
 You are my light, my diamond so bright,
 My sweetheart, my Beta Girl!

For being brother Betas,
 We give our heartfelt thanks;
 But fame has never risen
 From within the Beta ranks.

MY DELTA QUEEN

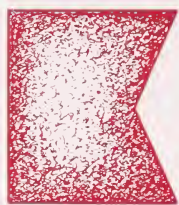

In all my dreams it always seems
I think of you and long;
For your caress is happiness,
To me you'll e'er belong;
Tho' years may take you far from me,
My own sweetheart you'll always be.

Chorus:

You're my Delta Queen, yes my
Delta Queen,
In purple, white, and gold;
To me each day as I work and play,
Your riches will unfold;
Should we ever part, 'twould break
my heart,
You mean so much to me,
So while I live, my life I give,
For my Queen of Delta Tau.

Tho' the first one wasn't so hot,
Our present house is sure a honey;
We thought we were lost, but we were not,
Thanks to our insurance money.

KA ROSE

She has two dreamy eyes of blue,
A wealth of golden hair,
Two ruby lips to kiss you,
And a smile beyond compare.
She's the sweetest girl in all the world,
The fairest flower that grows.
She's my sunny Southern sweetheart,
She's my Kappa Alpha Rose.

If when our college days are o'er,
Our paths should lead apart,
I'll keep her cherished memory
Forever in my heart.
Someday we'll meet to part no more,
Stay ever side by side.
Then I'll make my KA Sweetheart
My Kappa Alpha bride.

Our example is set by brother Ed.
But it helps little or none;
To Howerton's office we're often led
For some of the things we've done.

(Southern gentlemen, so they say,
—maybe the past, but not today!)

KAPPA SIGMA DREAM GIRL

You're my Kappa Sigma Dream Girl,
Queen of my castles in Spain
Brightest star that gleams 'neath the crescent;
You're the rainbow that follows each rain
Lovely Kappa Sigma Dream Girl
Tell me, oh tell me that soon,
Forsaking all others save Kappa Sig brothers,
You'll be mine 'neath the Kappa Sig moon.

Now's the time for all good men—
The dear old frat needs boys again.
Go comb the highways and the hedges
And bring, Oh bring us back some pledges.

SWEETHEART OF A. T. O.

Most girls I've met I'll soon forget,
They could never be true
Cause for me there is only one who could

Stand for the gold and blue,
In my heart is a girl with a smile
on her lips.

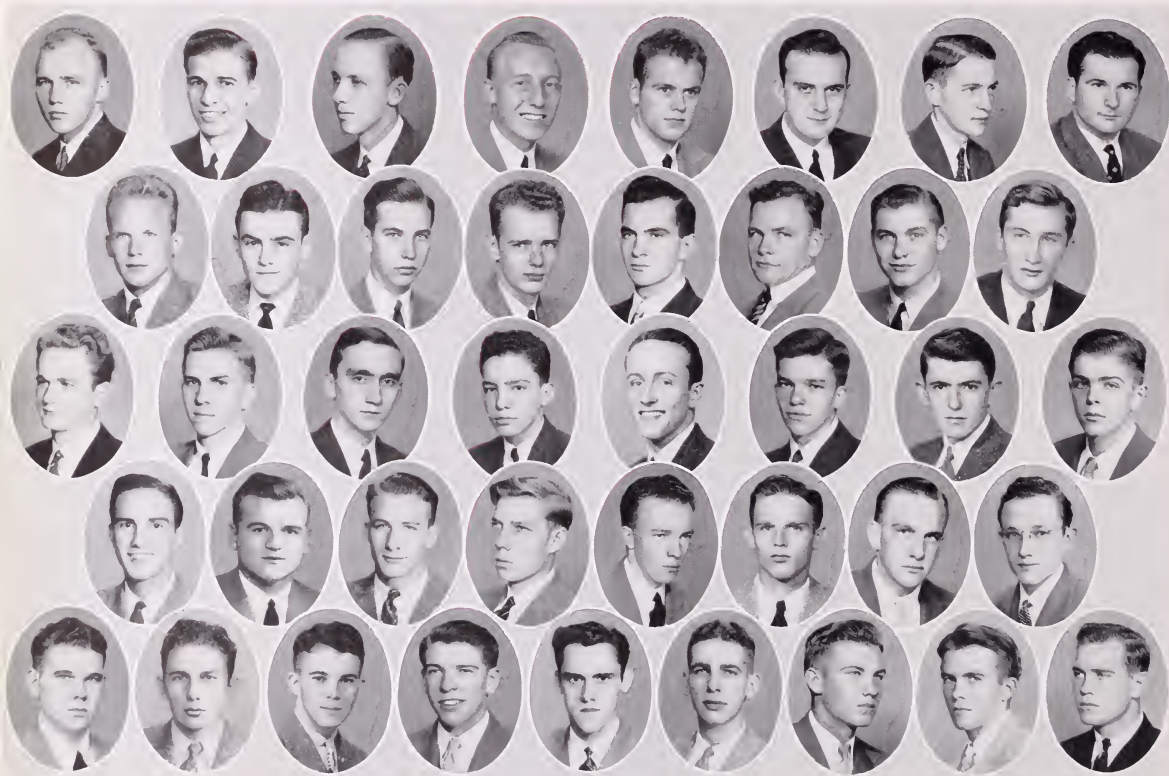

Lovely to see, precious to me,
With her eyes like the stars
And our rose in her hair,
No one can quite compare.
When shadows try to hide us,
Dreams will see us through.
Though the years come and go,
She'll be loyal I know,
She's the sweetheart of ATO.

You'll always know an ATO
Whatever he is doing,
'Cause one thing's sure, where'er
they go
There's always something brewing.

WHITE ROSE OF SIGMA NU

Like roses rare she's sweet and fair,
There are none that with her can compare,
To me it seems that heaven beams
When she is in my dreams
Round me her love is twining
And my fond heart is pining
For one I know whose love is true
She's the White Rose of Sigma Nu.

We earned our fame in another game,
But luck has changed our way.
And now, oh luck, you nasty man,
It's checkers that we play!

THE DREAM GIRL OF PI K. A.

When the night-birds are singing their lovesong
And you sit by the fire-light and dream,
There's the thought of a girl puts your brain in a whirl,
For her eyes like the bright em-
bers gleam;
She is fair as the heavens above
her,
She is to the trust she bears,
For tho' she is far a-way,
She'll be yours some sweet day,
She's the Dream-Girl of Pi K. A

Here's to Pi KA,
With fifty thousand men;
We never get new pledges,
But the old ones pledge again.

PHI EP DREAM GIRL SONG

Every college has its coed fair,
Every town its village belle,
Who has won acclaim and widespread fame
By her charm and her wit as well,
Every fellow on this earth of ours
Has some girl as his ideal,
Tho it only seems that she comes in his dreams
Yet this mythical dream girls is real,
Chorus:
She's the girl who has stolen the dew for her eyes,
She has taken the sun for her smile,
She has borrowed the tones of the nightingale's song
Just to hold one entranced all the while.

She has hair just as fair as the flowers in May,
And her loveliness never will die,
Her nature is sweet as a nature itself.

We may not have a lot of things,
But it truly can be said
That Sampson, Atlas and Hercules
Were sissies compared to Ned.

. . . . THE 1942

The Rebel coaching staff, consisting of Coaches Weems Baskin, Vernon "Catfish" Smith, Chuck Jaskwich, Tad Smith, Edwin "Goat" Hale, and Head Coach Harry Mehre, guided the 1941 football team through the most successful season in the history of the school. Gallant little Junie Hovious was the kingpin of the Rebel flock; a star in defeat, a cog in victory. All-southeastern with Merle Hapes, his crusading H-H companion, Co-captain Homer Hazel, Jr., a guard, and Bill Eubanks, an end, Hovious climaxed his seasons of college football with the best backfield play critics have observed in Montgomery's North-South Classic. Wobble Davidson was co-captain with Hazel, and these two helped to produce a stalwart forward wall with a host of other Rebs—Thorsey, Poole, Billy Hazel, Kozel, Bernocchi, Wisoski, Meyers, Britt, Frye, Swinney and Wood. Terrel was a backfield sensation with a squad that produced several splendid performers in Bennett, Jones, Flack, Sam, Yandell and Castle.

WE HIT OUR STRIDE

Mississippi's 1941 football fortunes could be measured by the careless ethics of Eastern officials, the stubby length of Junie Hovious' cleated shoes and the terrible difference a white chalk line can make—for it was through these unrelated quirks of the game that the Johnny Rebs missed out on their first unbeaten campaign in history and their first Southeastern Conference Crown.

In order of occurrence, actual results show a loss to Georgetown at 16-6, a win over Southwestern at 27-0, a tie with Georgia at 14-14, wins over Holy Cross at 21-0, Tulane 20-13, Marquette 12-6, Louisiana State 13-12, and Arkansas 18-0, and the loss to Mississippi State at 6-0.

And in the same order of occurrence, fate took a hand with two bitterly unfair decisions to provide for both Georgetown touchdowns, and in bringing Rebel "misses" by inches when inches meant the difference between victory and defeat, a Conference Crown, a Bowl Bid and a win over State.

With their first opening loss in five seasons to overcome, no bunch of youngsters ever fought harder than did the Johnny Rebs in trying to make up for the Hoya debacle. They marched from the first game to the last without a defeat, making the Tulane win the high point on their calendar in gaining back the prestige and bowl-bid prospects lost in the Georgetown game.

But along came the Maroons to score a "sneak play" touchdown and beat back all Ole Miss bids for a score. State came in a mild underdog, was outplayed narrowly in every department of the game, but wrested from the Rebels a set of certainties in the matter of a New Year's Day game and the S. E. C. Championship.

Get 'em tough, boys.

ENDING a twenty-five year drought as far as Mississippi football was concerned, a light but fast Rebel team invaded New Orleans and returned victorious after defeating a much heavier Tulane aggregation by the score of 20-13. Playing before a crowd of 44,000 Greenie Homecoming supporters, the boys from Ole Miss played an afternoon of football chock full of spectacular performances, the credit for the sensational runs going to Butch Hovious and Jackie Flack. This was the day that Mississippi had been waiting for since 1915, when the Rebels whipped Tulane for the last time.

Beaten, too, was Louisiana State for the fourth consecutive season—an achievement only one other team has ever reached.

Next on the list came the revenge provoked defeat of Arkansas . . . to avenge the 20-21 licking which provided the Rebels of 1940 their first loss.

Floundering in a sea of mud, the Mehremen invaded Yankee territory to emerge on the top-side of a 12-6 score in their tilt with Marquette University. Returning home, they began to prepare for the game in which fate was to join hands with their greatest rival—Mississippi State Maroons.

Three times first downs were missed by inches inside the Maroon 15-yard stripe, but these weren't the payoff plays; they came when last-gasp tackles by Maroon defenders cut Hovious down from behind on a scrimmage gallop that had moved 41 yards and a punt return that had moved 52 yards, and on a Hovious-propelled pass play that Ray Terrell completed with but one flaw; Raymond grazed a sideline stripe while scoring. An official certified Terrell's midfield miscue late in the final period to end the sixth of seven definite Rebel scoring threats. It mattered little that State could muster but one additional touchdown march over the play that gave them six points—a quarterback "sneak" that went for 38 yards—for the Bulldogs held to their margin with as much finality as death and taxes.

Measured in terms of the usual order of success, Ole Miss' basketball team struck the lowest ebb reached in recent years through the 1942 calendar, but measured in terms of contributions made to Uncle Sam's armed mortgage on the nation's future, the Johnny Rebs etched a pattern of achievement second to none in the South's Big Twelve Conference.

For while Coach Chuck Jaskwich's lads could win but four of nineteen games, taking decisions from Vanderbilt, Mississippi State, L. S. U. and Mississippi College, they contributed something far finer as a record for posterity when four regulars, Forwards Jackie Flack and Ray Terrell and Guards Loren Burnette and Art Goodwin, with Center John Jennings left cage warfare for more realistic service with the Army and the Marines.

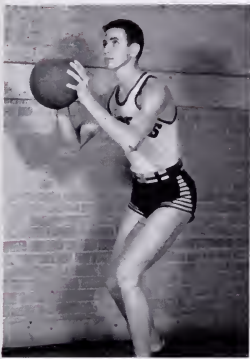

Sub-par performances were recorded against L. S. U., Alabama and Tulane early in the season, but Tennessee, defending S. E. C. champs and Sugar Bowl winner, and Auburn, semi-finalists in the '42 Big Twelve tournament, were pressed mightily to take three-point decisions, and L. S. U. was beaten in a return encounter.

Manpower was at such a premium toward the end of the year that the final game of the season, with State, saw the Rebels combatting the Maroons with four men for the last four minutes of the tiff. The Johnny Rebs never quit, but too much of their top artillery left for those remaining to make the season presentable in ledger form. Captain Harry Simpson and Sophomores Ed Henson, Dick Miller, Ray Poole and Montie Davis were the Rebels with the squad all year. Junie Hovious, Larry Hazel and Wobble Davidson, former lettermen, were "drafted" to help finish the season.

Ole Miss' 1941 baseball campaign, which rocked along on unstable pitching talent against seven opponents, ultimately emerged as one of the best records the Johnny Rebs have compiled in recent seasons.

Rain dissolved the earlier part of the schedule and the season ultimately opened with a heart-breaking, 10-11 loss to Alabama in a 14-frame tussle. Successive reversals at the hands of Clarksdale of the Cotton States League and Bradley Tech were followed by a split series with Millsaps and a clean sweep over Tulane before two turning points were reached at midseason.

After Clarksdale had applied its second straight defeat,

'Bama came to the campus and proceeded to lash everything Ole Miss' hurlers had in sight for a pair of tremendous reversals.

That could have been the turning point for a dismal year, but the Rebels rallied with two upsetting triumphs over Mississippi State at Starkville, turning the Maroons under to knock them from the top spot in league standings and providing the impetus for a two-game victory march over Louisiana State.

The final game with State was won to show Coach Tad Smith's charges in third place in Conference standings, with seven victories out of eleven starts.

BASEBALL SEASON

Coach Tad Smith.

Standing: Webb, Wingfield, Bullock, Cunningham, Davidson, Castle. Seated: Howard, Bowman, Hathorne, Catching, Shackelford, Hamilton.

The track squad was made up of Bowman, 100, 220, and broad jump; Shackelford, 220, 440 and broad jump; Cunningham, 440 and 880; Captain Guy Hathorn, mile and two-mile; Wingfield, high and low hurdles; Bubber North, high and low hurdles and pole vault; Red Hamilton, pole vault; Eubanks, javelin and discus; Lee Castle, discus and shot; Wobble Davidson, shot; Merle Hapes, javelin and high jump, and Billy Noel, high jump.

Bubber Cunningham established a new 440-yard record in school marks in the Alabama encounter with a 49.4 race. He displaced J. B. Bell's time of 50.1 seconds, made in '34. Bill Eubanks set a new javelin throw mark of 192 feet, 2½ inches to erase a throw of 184 feet, 3 inches set by Vergil Gill in 1934.

Find of the season was Hoff Shackelford, a sophomore, who displayed exceptional form in the 440 and 220-yard dashes. He teamed with Bowman, Cunningham, Eubanks and Roy Wingfield, a promising newcomer in the hurdles, for a majority of the first place marks established during the year.

Ole Miss' 1941 track showing was characterized by individual brilliance for the ability it lacked in all-round proficiency in providing the Rebels with their best cinder record since 1934.

A single-point 58.59 loss to Vanderbilt separated Ole Miss from one of its best seasonal showings in history in what was the opening dual encounter of the campaign. The Johnny Rebs grabbed off eight firsts to the Commies' seven, but faded in the relay to go under.

Two outstanding cinder marks failed to dim the overwhelming team superiority enjoyed by Alabama, in a $41\frac{1}{2}$ -84 $\frac{1}{2}$ defeat, but the first win over Mississippi State since 1936 brought solace to Rebel followers in a 69 $\frac{1}{2}$ -61 $\frac{1}{2}$ showing of superior talent, and the regular card closed with a 79.47 lacing of the Tulane Wave.

Despite the effects of a pulled leg muscle, which proved a tremendous handicap against State, little Dick meet placed second, despite Bowman's forced withdrawal from the finals because of his injury.

Points were garnered by every Reb through the season, with leading point-makers besides Bowman ranking with Eubanks scoring 30 markers, Shackelford 26, Wingfield 24, Cunningham 23, Hathorn 23, North 14, Davidson 9, and Hamilton 8 $\frac{1}{2}$.

Bowman (3), Eubanks (2), Shackelford, Hathorn and Hamilton scored firsts against Vanderbilt, Bowman and Cunningham tallied the lone firsts registered against Alabama, Shackelford (2), Wingfield (2), Eubanks, Davidson, Hapes and Noel (tie for first in the high jump) scored ahead of the field against State, and Bowman (3), Cunningham (2) and Wingfield (2) scored firsts against Tulane.

1941 TRACK SEASON

Cunningham leads by yards.

Eubanks throws a high one.

Weight-man Castle.

A close finish.

Bowman paced the Rebels in markers with a total of 47 $\frac{1}{2}$ points for the season.

He piled up 15 points in three firsts against Vanderbilt, then raced to a 9.6 hundred against 'Bama to tie the school record established in 1931 by Jack Burnette. Scoring 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ points against the Tide, Bowman slid to 6 against the Maroons, then came back with Tulane for 3 more firsts before taking a first in the Cotton Carnival century dash at Memphis and qualifying second in time trials in the SEC meet in the same event. His broad jump mark of 23.7 in the conference

The Rebel golf team of 1941, captained by Cary Middlecoff, came through a tough season to be ranked among the top golf teams of the S. E. C. The Rebels won eight out of ten matches. Included on the squad were Cary Middlecoff, Gordon Lyon, Jr., Felix Zaremba, Albert Gardner, and Ernie Cannella.

The Ole Miss netmen, coached by Dr. James Silver, did equally as well by winning 11 victories in 14 engagements. Tennis lettermen were Bosco Bevis, George Joest, Alex Touchstone, Billy Noel, Charles Jacobs, Jackie Flack, and Jake Propst.

Frosh Squad, 1941.

Studded with high school stars from every section of the State, the Ole Miss freshman football team of the 1941 season possessed more individual talent than perhaps any other Red and Blue Frosh squad.

Working as decoys for the varsity squad the past year, the frosh piled up a rather enviable record . . . even though they did tie the game of the year with the Bulldogs of Mississippi State. In their opener, the Baby Rebs defeated the Decatur Junior College Warriors, 20-7. In their only campus engagement they came through with a 27-0 triumph over Sunflower Junior College . . . Then came the 7-7 deadlock with the State Frosh . . . to end the most successful frosh season in many years.

Coach Tad Smith's freshman squad of '41 will add plenty of strength to the '42 varsity gridders in both brain and brawn to keep the Rebels ranking high in the athletic world.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Our Miss women students are encouraged to participate in the intramural sports and recreational activity program through the efforts of the Women's Athletic Association. The W. A. A. is under the guidance of the Physical Education Department, which is headed by Miss Ruth White.

This organization, completing its sixth year of service, is a member of the National and State Federation of Women's Athletics. The executive board is composed of the officers and a representative from each sorority and from the student body at large.

Basketball, tennis, softball, shuffleboard, ping pong, and archery contests are conducted by the W. A. A. throughout the school year. These intersorority tournaments create a keen competitive spirit among the sororities and the handsome trophies awarded to the victors are greatly valued.

This year marked a new high in interest in the W. A. A. and in its useful and constructive work among the University of Mississippi coeds. Officers of the Women's Athletic Association are: Lanelle Long, president; Mary Cooper Miller, vice-president; Martha Sartor, secretary-treasurer.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Alumni Association of Ole Miss is composed of all former students who have graduated from the University, or who have attended it as regularly enrolled students for two semesters. Each year on Homecoming Day the annual business meeting is held, at which time the officers are elected and other business is transacted.

The Alumni News is the official publication of the association and is issued quarterly.

The constitution of the Alumni Association may be found in the general bulletin of the University for 1928, with amendments made since that date being carried in the 1931 and 1939 bulletins.

The officers of the Alumni Association are as follows: J. W. Bell, '98, of University, Mississippi, president; W. T. Wynn, '11, of Greenville, Mississippi, vice-president; Jeff K. Hamm, '17, of University, Mississippi, secretary. Mr. Britt Rogers, '17, of Tupelo, Mississippi, represents the association on the University Athletic Committee.

BUNNY WULBERN

Flying Rebels today, Flying Yanks tomorrow—such might well be the motto of one of the newest and most practical organizations on the Ole Miss campus. An outgrowth of the C. A. A. training program that has been offered to University students, the Flying Rebels are now represented in every branch of our nation's flying forces, fighting in every battle area from Africa to Australia.

The student body at Ole Miss has long since become accustomed to seeing the yellow Cubs maneuver over the hill around Oxford, and it has become just as accustomed to seeing the Red and Blue jackets that distinguish the Flying Rebels from other students at the University. The club has been progressive from its beginning, and the innovation of special jackets for its members has been only one of the many distinguishing features of the organization that has been admired and followed by others.

It is surprising, therefore, that the club was organized just two years ago by a few C. A. A. students for the purpose of promoting safer flying among the students and pilots here; to create a friendlier feeling and spirit among the people that fly; and to publicize the flying activities at Ole Miss. That this late addition to Ole Miss' family of organizations has been a success is an obvious truth.

The Flying Rebels is an honorary club, and admission is gained only after solo flight is completed successfully and the applicant has been passed on by all members of the organization.

"For Want of a Nail a Kingdom Was Lost"

Certainly the 1942 Ole Miss would have been lost had it not been for those persons who gave unsparingly of their time, talents, and facilities to help save this book which, because of the existence of drastically uncertain conditions, received one set-back after another. To the following for their invaluable assistance, the editor gives his heartfelt thanks:

To Mr. Joe B. Ledbetter, of the Benson Printing Company, for laying out and designing the book and approving or disapproving of each minute detail; to Mrs. Daisy Abbott of the Shreveport Engraving Company for her patience and encouragement; to Mr. P. E. Dozier of the Shreveport Engraving Company, for his utmost cooperation at all times; to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cofield who gave their best to promote the photographic success of this venture; to Mr. Allen Lee Toombs who sacrificed many holidays, much sleep, and who, as assistant editor, labored beyond the call of duty on countless occasions. Last, but not least, a toast, an orchid, or what have you . . . to that extremely small group of dependable staff members. Without your help the book would have been impossible.

Many years of practical experience, the finest of photographic materials, painstaking care, and a sincere desire to make the 1942 Ole Miss portray an interest and an artistry unsurpassed have been important factors in our efforts to portray for you Ole Miss and its students at their best.

It is our hope that this volume of the Ole Miss will in no small measure merit your commendation because of our thoughtful and careful attention to every photographic detail in the composition of this book.

Working with the staff and with the students on this important undertaking has for us been a genuine pleasure.
